Re: Cannons Engineering Corporation Sites

Dear Sir or Madam:

In notice letters issued in March and April of this year, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and the State of New Hampshire notified you of potential liability that your company may incur or may have incurred in connection with the Cannons Engineering Corporation hazardous waste facilities in Bridgewater, Massachusetts, and in Plymouth Massachusetts, and related hazardous waste facilities in Nashua, New Hampshire, and in Londonderry, New Hampshire. In that same correspondence, EPA requested that you furnish information and copies of records describing your company's involvement with those facilities. You were advised that this information was being requested pursuant to Section 104(e) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA) and pursuant to Section 3007 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA). Responses to these information requests were due to EPA within 30 days of receipt.

EPA has not yet received information from your company responsive to this information request, despite the fact that the applicable deadline has passed. We hereby request that you promptly supply EPA with any information that you have collected to date in response to this information request. We also ask that you complete your document search promptly and forward any additional material to EPA at that time. In the event that you have been unable to find any such information at the conclusion of your document search, the Information Request Addendum requires that you provide an affidavit to that effect in order to formalize your company's compliance with EPA's information request. Your affidavit should be signed by the company official responsible for the company's response to EPA's information request, and it should indicate that a diligent search of the company records has been conducted and that all relevant information discovered in that search, if any, is being presented to EPA.
